This past week, I conferred the Sacrament of Baptism on Matthew Dominic and Kyle Joseph Troxel. It was a great joy. Brady is the godfather for his brother Kyle. He did a real good job! Congratulations to Stacey and Theron.

We are planning the funeral Mass for Sandy Sapp, on Friday July 31 at 1pm. Due to COVID-19 restrictions, we are not planning a funeral luncheon. Mark and family will be greatly blessed by your cards and prayers, if you cannot attend.

I’ve begun working on marriage preparations with three couples: Taylon Lienemann and Brooke Frederick, Thomas Bradney and Hannah Kreitzinger, and Juan Herrera and Tasha Bredvick. It’s great fun, and I look forward to our meetings together. Love is in the air at St. James! In truth, it’s wonderful to experience the goodness and faith of our young people, making this life-long commitment of love and bringing it to the Church so that Christ can bless and seal it. Way to go parents!

Beginning on the first Thursday in August (the 6th), we will go back to the 7pm Exposed Eucharistic Holy Hour. The past few months, we have offered three hours of adoration, from 6pm to 9pm, intending to promote Adoration while providing social distancing for people who attend. Typically, we had less than 20 people during the three hours. I think one hour will suffice, but I will gladly expand the devotion if more people wish to attend.

Remember our Matt Talbot kitchen dinner is scheduled for July 30th. We’re doing a simple “second collection” for this work. The basket is marked and will be open for donations for the next two weekends. Thank you to all who provide this meal and donate to this project.
