NOTES FROM FATHER WALSH...

Happy Easter! Wishing you all the joyous and rich blessings of our Easter celebration and the hope that we will all one day share completely in the resurrected life of the Lord!

Thank you. A special thanks to all of those who participated in the parish's celebration of the Paschal Mystery—Holy Thursday through Easter. Thank you to the church cleaners, the decorator (Grace Kisling—and daughter), the acolytes, readers, servers and musicians, the families who came to help me prepare for the vigil on Saturday, to those who participated in the Triduum celebration, who adored the Lord on Thursday night, and to all who made a good confession in preparation for Easter and the renewal of their baptismal promises. The Holy Spirit lifted us all and shared His life with us. Thanks be to God for His goodness to us.

Easter Monday. There will be no parish Mass on Easter Monday. The normal schedule for our daily Mass times will commence at 6:30am on Tuesday and continue into the future.

The Final Adult Education Class on Catholicism. This Wednesday, our group will meet for the final class in our Catholicism series. It has been a great event in the parish and I think inspired all of us to greater enthusiasm and participation in the spiritual life and the life of the Church. My sincere thanks go to Diana and Corky McGown for organizing this, and for the support of Halley Henn, who was a team leader with the McGowns. Amid our COVID times, this class served to get us together, to do something extra for Lent, to attend Mass together on Wednesday nights, to meet new people and share our hearts with them. I think it blessed us in so many ways. Thank you to all who participated. God reward you!

The Restoration of the Sunday Mass Obligation. Bishop Conley has chosen Pentecost Sunday (May 23, 2021) as the day when the Sunday Mass and Holy Day obligation will return. This means that we are obliged to attend Mass on these days, under pain of mortal sin unless significant reasons inhibit our attendance. We will be offering various forms of catechesis on this obligation in the coming weeks, explaining how we can discern the obligation in our personal life, the importance of this obligation for us spiritually, and the mystery of our life as Church through the Sunday Eucharistic celebration. Many of our parishioners have been practicing the discipline for months. Nevertheless, the effect will be real for us all. It is good for us to be here!
