Merry Christmas! Celebrate the 8 days of the Christmas Octave 12/25 thru 1/1.

"O LORD GOD, GRANT US PEACE, For thou hast granted us all things, the peace of repose, the peace of Thy Sabbath, the peace that has no evening. For this gloriously beautiful order of things that are very good will pass away when it has achieved its end: it will have its morning and its evening." (Confessions - St Augustine)

As we depart from the evening of 2023, we awake to the new morning of 2024 with the Hope, Faith, and Love offered to us by God, our Father in Heaven.

Let us now resolve to grow closer to Jesus in this New Year, through a revived love of receiving Him in the Holy Eucharist. As in the Traditional Latin Mass, "the priest prays that the body and blood of our Lord that he has received will "adhaerat visceribus meis," cleave to my innermost parts." (K. Vost)

Michael lives at the dump in Mexico City and is served by the ministry of Hope of the Poor. He has a powerful testimony of faith. As he works he prays for others. With no electricity, when the sun goes down he goes to his home that he made from discarded pieces of plywood at the dump. He listens to the audio bible that he charges with a solar battery while he works. Despite a very difficult life of growing up at the dump Michael has led a Christian life and prioritized his relationship with God. Recently he was reunited with his daughter after many years of separation. He found her on social media and they were able to meet. Michael shared the immense blessing it was to see his daughter after 20 years of separation. His smile was contagious. The witness of faith through such suffering impacts everyone who hears his story.
