... THE STREAMING OF A VITAL CUR-RENT....

Friday, November 22. On that day I was made aware of the power of prayer. Without describing everything in stark detail, it began with a tree-cutting crew we had hired to cut down several huge elm trees growing too close to our house. After smoothly & safely taking down two of the trees, with the crew foreman suspended 70 ft. in the air in a bucket attached to a crane, the hydraulic system burst a hose, & with the rush of fluid, the operator in the truck knew his foreman was in great danger of plunging to the ground. Through his com. system he warned him to be perfectly still, & called the hydraulic company for help. Through a series of commands from the company, he was able to safely lower him to the ground. Later, the operator shared his fear with us that the foreman could have died if he had used his own bucket controls in those first vital moments.

Just a few hours after this, one of the crew was in a truck controlling a large grappling hook, loading branches. Being una-
