....THEY'LL KNOW YOU ARE CATHOLIC ....

Have you begun to decorate your house for Christmas yet? In planning where to put all the Santas, elves, wreaths, pillows, & snowflakes, do you have a special place for the stable, or creche, with the statues of the Holy Family? Christmas in a Catholic household would not be complete without seeing that portrayal of the birth of the baby Jesus; or maybe even doing the family ritual, honoring Advent, of not putting the "baby" into the manger until Christmas eve. We all have traditions that center around Christmas, one of the most beloved of our family holidays, & we strive to keep Jesus as the "reason for the season".

But before you decorate the house for Christmas, look around. Probably your shelves & walls already have many family pictures, keepsakes, & decorative items that you enjoy seeing for their beauty or memories; but before Christmas, do you see any visible signs of your Faith as you look around your home? Do you see any Catholic or Christian symbols or remembrances that have an honored place in your home during the year: A crucifix, a Holy picture, a statue of Mary, anything you can see daily, to remind you & your family of God's goodness & love?

senses, then, from the spiritual insight gained from the senses & the stirring of emotions, to raise the human world to God, to His inexpressible kingdom of mystery, beauty & life." (National Directory for Catechesis, p. 148)

If, as Christians, we "sense something to which others are insensible", did we experience that "vital current" in the form of miracles taking place on Friday? If so, had they been in response to our prayers, filling & inundating our hearts & souls, & used by God's will to heal & save? Did we witness the "power of prayer"? Only God knows!

When anyone enters your home, they'll know you are Catholic by the "sacred art" you devoutly display, in every season of the year. The hymn, They'll Know We are Christians by Our Love, is the inspiration for these thoughts; hopefully provoking you to sing this response from verse 4:

"All Praise to the Father, from whom all things come. And all Praise to Christ Jesus, His only Son. And all Praise to the Spirit, who makes us One."
